

AN ERA OF SPECULATION

CROOKED SCHEMES AIDED BY THE ENGLISH PRESS.

Highly Moral Papers Which Fail to Expose Glaring Swindles.

LONDON, May 24.—British newspapers, London and provincial, small and large, have been having a great time. There has been a violent fever of public company promoting, and hundreds of thousands of pounds have been spent upon advertising. Within the last ten days there have been as many as a dozen new companies advertised in one day, and the newspapers have been getting practically their own price and concurrently swallowing what little pretense some of them maintain of looking after the interests of the public. It is a maxim of every swindling promoter of rotten business concerns that any English newspaper will sell its soul for a good fat advertisement, and this reproach is now being daily justified.

Since last Monday the public has been asked to subscribe to various enterprises at least $10,000,000. The schemes have related to cycle tires, motor cars, beer, tacks, furniture, gold mines, boots and shoes, dry goods, and other things, and it may be truly declared that there is not a thoroughly honest one among the whole lot. The majority have borne the mark of fraud upon the surface, and if the law were as it should be, their promoters would be in jail for obtaining money under false pretenses. But the conscientious British newspaper man, who never tires of denouncing the venality of foreign newspapers, in which category he invariably includes American journals, says it is not his duty to consider the honesty of the advertisements offered him. He takes the money, puts the advertisement in, and the contract ends. The public must look after themselves, and a poor hand they are making of it.

Rings have been formed and stock exchange stocks manipulated to a premium before allotment, and then nothing, except warnings in the newspapers, which are never given, will prevent the public rushing into their early undoing. One man, a notorious promoter, after spending $100,000 in preliminary puffs, champagne luncheons and exquisite dinners to men likely to be useful, floated a particularly impudent scheme, with the result that he has made a profit of $1,000,000. At one of his dinners he managed to secure the presence of royalty, and it would be interesting to know how it was done and what it cost. His envious rivals would give a good deal for the information.

HONOLULU, April 21, 1896.

MR. C. W. MACFARLANE:—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble and also recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.

Yours truly, J. B. DANIELS.
